

The Childhood,
Law & Policy
Network (CLPN)

'Children and Their Bodies – Discourses, Practices, and Lived Experiences'

A webinar series • December 2024 – March 2025

Sponsored by the Childhood, Law & Policy Network (CLPN), this webinar series sheds light on social, political, educational, and medical issues concerning children and their bodies. The webinars bring together experts from diverse fields to provide critical insights into these important topics.

Children's sports and physical education

Suzanne Everley (Sociology of Physical Education, Activity and Health, University of Chichester)

Déirdre Ní Chróinín (Arts Education and Physical Education, Mary Immaculate College)

Bonnie Pang (Sport and Qualitative Research, University of Bath)

Tuesday 3 December
5–6.30pm

Children's food practices

Sarah Gillborn (Education, University of Birmingham)

Tina Moffat (Anthropology, McMaster University)

Jennifer Patico (Anthropology, Georgia State University)

Tuesday
4 February
5–6.30pm

Childhood and disability

Harriet Cooper (Medical Education (Sociology), University of East Anglia)

Antonios Ktenidis (Education, University of Sheffield)

Anastasia Todd (Gender and Women's Studies, University of Kentucky)

Tuesday
25 February
5–6.30pm

Children's gender/sex

Georgiann Davis (Sociology, University of New Mexico)

Jules Gill-Peterson (History, Johns Hopkins University)

Jordan Osserman (Psychosocial and Psychoanalytic Studies, University of Essex)

Wednesday
5 March
5–6.30pm

Attendance is FREE but registration in advance is required. To register, use the QR code or go to

<https://tinyurl.com/ym9fmavf>

