

Vice-Principal Humanities and Social Science's Report to Senate

Membership of Creative Industries Federation

The Faculty, backed by QMSE, has successfully applied to join the Creative Industries Federation. This is a national membership organisation that aims to bring together all of the UK's arts, creative industries and cultural education to provide an authoritative voice within the sector.

HSS Faculty Away Day

Senior colleagues gathered at the Law Society on Wednesday 10th May to discuss key priorities for the Faculty. Topics discussed included Research Impact, Recruitment, and Retention. It was agreed that whilst there are many areas of good practice across HSS, more can be done to enhance support for research activity and the engagement, retention and success of students.

Leverhulme Early Career Fellowships

The Faculty has been awarded up to eight Leverhulme Early Career Fellowships for the upcoming academic year. This elite group of scholars will be welcomed to QMUL formally at an event in September 2017 and will be encouraged to work closely with the new Institute in HSS (IHSS).