 - [g] To affiliate with other institutions.
 - [h] To employ staff and to prescribe their terms and conditions of service.
3. To do anything else necessary or appropriate, whether incidental to these powers or not, in order to further the objects of QMUL as a place of education, research and scholarship.

Ordinance A3: Statement of Primary Responsibilities of the Council

The Primary Responsibilities of the Council are:

1. To approve the mission and strategic vision of the institution, long-term academic and business plans and key performance indicators, and to ensure that these meet the interests of stakeholders.
2. To establish the authority of the President and Principal, as chief executive, for the academic, corporate, financial, estate and personnel management of the institution.
3. To be the institution's legal authority and, as such, to ensure that systems are in place for meeting all the institution's legal obligations, including those arising from contracts and other legal commitments made.
4. To ensure the establishment and monitoring of systems of control and accountability, including financial and operational controls and risk assessment, and procedures for handling internal grievances and for managing conflicts of interest.
5. To ensure that processes are in place to monitor and evaluate the performance and effectiveness of the institution against the plans and approved key performance indicators.
6. To establish processes to monitor and evaluate the performance and effectiveness of the governing body itself.
7. To conduct its business in accordance with best practice in higher education corporate governance and with the principles of public life drawn up by the Committee on Standards in Public Life.
8. To safeguard the good name and values of the institution.
9. To appoint the President and Principal who will be chief executive, and to put in place suitable arrangements for monitoring his/her performance.
10. To appoint a secretary to the governing body and to ensure that, if the person appointed has managerial responsibilities in the institution, there shall be an appropriate separation in the lines of accountability.
11. To be the employer of all staff in the institution and to ensure that there is a human resources strategy.

12. To be the President and Principal financial and business authority of the institution, to ensure that proper accounts are kept, to approve the annual budget and financial statements, and to have overall responsibility for the institution's assets, property and estate.
13. To make such provision as it thinks fit for the general welfare of students, in consultation with Senate.
14. To act as trustee for any property, legacy, endowment, bequest or gift in support of the work and welfare of the institution.
15. To ensure that the institution's constitution shall be followed at all times.

Ordinance A4: The Membership of Council

Appointed members of Council

1. Governance Committee shall make recommendations to Council for the appointment of members where there is no appointing body identified.
2. In the event of a vacancy among the members appointed on the nomination of the Drapers' Company, a new nomination shall be requested and, when received, presented to the next ordinary meeting of Council.
3. Where a casual vacancy arises because an appointed member ceases to be a member before his/her term of office expires, the member replacing him/her shall commence a new term of office of four years and be eligible for re-appointment in the same way as other members.

Elected members of Council

4. The call for nominations and elections shall be conducted by the Secretary to Council.
5. The four academic staff members of Council shall be elected by a ballot using a single transferable vote system. The constituencies for the election of academic staff members shall be as follows:
 - [a] The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
 - [b] The Faculty of Science and Engineering
 - [c] The School of Medicine and Dentistry
 - [d] All academic staff of QMUL

6. All academic staff in the relevant constituencies shall be entitled to stand and to vote. Academic staff are defined in Ordinance B1. In any category, where more than one person stands for election, the Secretary to Council conducts a postal or electronic ballot. Voting shall be by the single transferable vote method.
7. The member elected from staff other than the four academic staff members described in 5 above shall be elected by a ballot using a single transferable vote system. All members of staff shall be entitled to stand and to vote. Members of staff are defined in Ordinance B – Staff of QMUL.
8. Elections shall normally be held during the second semester prior to the academic year in which an elected member's period of office is due to end.
9. Where a casual vacancy arises because an elected member ceases to be a member before his/her term of office expires, the member replacing him/her shall commence a new term of office of four years and be eligible for re-election in the same way as other members.

Attendance at Council meetings

10. Members are expected to attend all meetings of Council and remain present for their full duration. Where a member is unable to attend a meeting, he/she shall submit apologies in advance of the meeting to the Secretary to Council.
11. The Secretary to Council, or nominee, shall attend all meetings of the Council. Other individuals who are not members of Council may attend a meeting of the Council at the invitation of the Chairman.

Ordinance A5 Officers of the Council

1. This Ordinance shall be made in pursuance of Article 13 of the Charter. In addition to the Chairman, there shall be the following Officers of the Council appointed by Council:
 - [a] The Vice-Chairman elected by Council from amongst its external members for a period of office of four years or for the remainder of that member's term of office, whichever is shorter. The Vice-Chairman may be reappointed for a further period in accordance with his/her period of office. The Vice-Chairman acts as Chairman during a vacancy in the office of Chairman and during the absence or disability of the Chairman.
 - [b] The Treasurer elected by Council from amongst its external members for a period of office of four years or for the remainder of that member's term of office, whichever is shorter. The Treasurer may be reappointed for a further period in accordance with his/her period of office. The Council determines the duties of the Treasurer.

[c] The Secretary to Council.

[d] The Chairman has delegated authority to take action on behalf of Council between meetings on business that would not have merited discussion at a meeting of Council (such as the signing of routine documents). The Chairman determines whether the matter is one of greater substance, in which case he/she consults with Council members before taking Chair's action. Action taken will be reported at the next meeting for confirmation.

Ordinance A6: The registration and declaration of interests of members of the Council and members of Council Committees

Registration of Interests by Members of Council

1. The Secretary to Council will retain a register of the interests of members of the Council. The purpose of the register shall be to provide information about the interests of members which others might reasonably think could influence their actions and decisions as members of the Council.
2. Registrable interests of the Council member and his/her close associates include all company directorships, membership of governing bodies, trusteeships and partnerships. In addition, significant pecuniary or other material interests should be recorded where others might reasonably think that the interest could influence their actions and decisions as members of the Council.
3. A person does not have an interest in a matter solely by virtue of the fact that he or she is a member of staff or student of QMUL.
4. New members, on appointment, will be asked by the Secretary to the Council if they have an entry to make in the register; all members will be sent annually a copy of their entry. Members shall be responsible for making and amending their entries and for deciding the personal information which fulfils the purpose of the register.
5. The Register will be circulated in full to members of Council annually and shall be published by QMUL.

Declaration of Interests by Members of Council and Members of Committees

6. "Member" in this section means any member of the Council or any other committee of QMUL and includes students and members of staff.

7. In corresponding with officers or employees of QMUL and before speaking or voting in any debate in the Council or any committee, a member must declare any known, likely or potential pecuniary or other interest in the matter under discussion, or where there is a risk that such an interest might be perceived as a conflict. Such declarations of interest at a meeting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
8. The Chairman of the meeting may require members who have declared an interest not to take part in the deliberation concerning that item, and/or not to vote.
9. Complaints that relevant interests have not been declared may be made to the Secretary to the Council. Any such complaint shall be supported by relevant evidence. In the case of the Council and its committees, the Chairman of Council decides if there is a case to answer and the action, if any, to be taken. In the case of other committees, the President and Principal decides. In either case, the decision of the Chairman or Principal shall be final. The Vice-Chairman of Council decides the matter if the complaint concerns the Chairman of Council.
10. Advice on the above may be obtained in the first instance from the Secretary to Council who may seek guidance from the Chairman of Council or the President and Principal.

Ordinance A7: Meetings of the Council and its standing Committees

Ordinary meetings of the Council and its standing committees

1. The Council shall meet at least five times per year with meetings scheduled in advance. Scheduled meetings shall also be known as ordinary meetings. The standing committees of Council shall meet in accordance with the number of meetings designated in their Terms of Reference.
2. The schedule of ordinary meetings of the Council and meetings of standing committees of Council shall normally be published by 30 June in the academic year prior to the year in which the meetings are to be held.
3. The quorum for Council shall be seven such that there is a majority of members who are not staff nor students of QMUL.
4. The quorum for the committees of Council shall be one third of the number of members of the Committee with a minimum of three members.
5. If a meeting of Council or its committees does not meet quorum, the Chairman shall determine whether; a) the meeting shall be postponed and rearranged, or b), that the meeting shall proceed. In the instance of b) all decisions made will be considered preliminary until the agreement has been confirmed by the required number of members to effect the decisions as formal.

6. A member who does not attend a meeting for twelve consecutive calendar months shall be deemed to have resigned his/her membership of Council or a standing committee unless the Council decides otherwise.

Extraordinary meetings of the Council and standing committees

7. An extraordinary meeting of the Council or a standing committee may be called by the Chairman at any time.
8. An extraordinary meeting of the Council or a standing committee may be called by the Secretary to the Council or the committee at the written request of no fewer than one third of the members. Extraordinary meetings shall be held within a maximum of 21 days from the date of receipt of the requests by the Secretary.
9. The business of an extraordinary meeting of Council or standing committee shall be only that business for which the meeting was called. An extraordinary meeting may be held electronically, by circulation or in person.

Circulation of agendas and papers

10. The Secretary to the Council or the standing committee normally despatches the agenda and papers to all members for a meeting at least seven days prior to the date of the meeting.
11. Any member of Council or the standing committee may add an item for consideration to the agenda by submitting it to the Secretary to Council by the relevant published deadline.
12. Authors of papers shall submit their paper to the Secretary to Council or the standing committee at least 14 days prior to the date of the meeting.
13. Any papers not sent with the original circulation shall be circulated by the Secretary at least three days prior to the meetings. Only in exceptional circumstances, and with the agreement of the Chairman or committee chair, shall papers be circulated in a shorter timeframe or tabled at the meeting.
14. The agenda for a meeting of the Council or a committee may include items marked with an asterisk, which will signify an expectation that these items will pass without discussion. Any member may before the start of a meeting request that the asterisk be removed, to permit discussion of the items.

15. In exceptional circumstances, supplementary agenda items may be taken with the approval of the Chairman.
16. Agenda and papers for, and minutes of, any meeting or items relating to reserved business shall be recorded separately and circulated only to those members entitled to receive them.

Conduct of meetings of Council and its Committees

17. Any proposal or recommendation which appears on the agenda or in a report submitted to the meeting shall be put to the meeting for resolution. Any amendments to the proposal shall be considered in turn before the overall proposal. If an amendment is carried, the proposal shall be amended accordingly and the amended version considered for approval.
18. It shall be within the discretion of the Chairman to set a limit to the length of time to be spent on debate, provided that the mover of any proposal, motion, amendment or item of business has the right of final reply before it is put.
19. Voting at meetings shall be normally by show of hands of those present, not including the Chairman. The decision shall be taken in accordance with the majority votes. When equal numbers of votes are cast, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.

Acts during vacancies

20. No act or resolution of the Council or any committee or board constituted by it or one of its committees or boards can become invalid by reason only of any vacancy in the body doing or passing it or by reason of any want of qualification by or invalidity in the election or appointment of any de facto member of the body whether present or absent, or by reason of the accidental omission to give any member notice of the meeting or the non-receipt by any member of that notice.

Minutes

21. The Secretary to Council or nominee or the secretary to the standing committee shall be responsible for producing minutes of the meeting and for maintaining the master copies of all minutes and papers.
22. Minutes shall be unconfirmed until approved at the next meeting. After the Chairman has agreed the unconfirmed minutes they shall be circulated to members. Any amendments to the unconfirmed minutes agreed at the meeting shall be incorporated into a final version which becomes the confirmed minutes and the formal record of the discussion and decisions.

Ordinance A8: The Committees of Council

1. There shall be the following Committees of the Council:

Audit and Risk Committee

4. The Terms of Reference and membership of the committees shall be recommended by Governance Committee and approved by Council. The Terms of Reference of sub-committees of the standing committees shall be approved by the parent committee.
5. The Chairman of each committee shall be nominated by the Governance Committee from amongst the external members of Council and approved by Council, with the exception of; QMUL Treasurer who shall be the Chairman of the Finance and Investment Committee, and the Chairman of Council who shall be the Chairman of the Governance Committee, the Remuneration Committee and the Honorary Degrees and Fellowships Committee.
6. Terms of reference of committees may provide for co-opted members who are external to QMUL.
7. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman of Council and QMUL Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of the Remuneration Committee.
8. The Vice-Chairman of Council shall be an ex-officio member of the Governance Committee.
9. The President and Principal shall be an ex-officio member of the Finance and Investment Committee, the Honorary Degrees and Fellowships Committee, the Governance Committee and the Remuneration Committee.
10. One Vice-Principal nominated by the President and Principal shall be an ex-officio member of the Honorary Degrees and Fellowships Committee.

11. The term of office for members of standing committees shall be continuous until the member stands down, becomes ineligible for membership or is asked to stand down by the Chairman of Council.

Ordinance A9: The custody and use of the Seal

1. In accordance with Article 1 of the Charter, the Council shall have the custody and sole use of the Common Seal of QMUL.
2. The Secretary to Council shall be responsible for the safe custody of the Seal.
3. The Common Seal shall be affixed to any document for the purposes of a specific resolution of Council or by authority of the Chairman of Council, as required by law or by accepted custom and usage. The Common Seal shall be used on certificates of admission to Degrees or grants of Diploma and where appropriate on contracts and conveyances.
4. The Common Seal shall be affixed to documents by, or under the direction of, the Secretary to Council.
5. The affixation of the Common Seal will be witnessed by the signature of either of two members of Council or of one member of Council and of the Secretary of Council.
6. The Secretary shall ensure that a Sealing Register is maintained in which shall be entered the date of each occasion on which the Common Seal is affixed, the nature of the instrument and the names of the Council members or other College officers who sign the instrument.
7. Every use of the Common Seal shall be reported to the next meeting of the Council.

Ordinance A10: The power to make regulations

1. Regulations refer to provisions governing general or central activities of QMUL, including Academic Regulations, Financial Regulations, Library Regulations and Halls Regulations. Regulations shall be proposed by the appropriate person or committee and approved by the Council or Council's delegated authority.
2. Rules refer to provisions confined to particular Schools, Institutes or Centres although they may extend to staff or students from other Schools, Institutes or Centres who have access to the facilities in question. Rules shall be made by the appropriate person or committee subject to confirmation by the relevant Dean for Taught Programme or Research in the case of academic matters, and by the President and Principal, or an officer designated by him, in all other cases.

3. Codes of Practice and Policies refer to statements that make provisions for staff and/or students of QMUL. Codes of practice and/or policies that make general provisions for staff and students require approval by Council, or its delegated authority.
4. Any rules, codes of practice or policies that include penalties for their breach must be approved by Council, or its delegated authority for approval and shall not be valid until such approval has been given.

[e] Heads of School/Institute (School of Medicine and Dentistry) ex-officio

[f] Faculty Deans of Research and Taught Programmes ex-officio

[g] Three students elected by the students' representatives across all faculties.

[h] Elected members of academic staff so that there is an overall elected majority (including the elected student members). The numbers of elected members of academic staff per faculty may vary to provide for uneven numbers of Heads of School or Heads/Directors of Institute so that there is in total an even number from each Faculty over all membership categories. In the first instance this will be: 9 from HSS; 12 from SMD and 13 from S&E.

Elected members of Senate

24. The call for nominations and elections shall be conducted by the Academic Secretary. The elections shall be conducted by a ballot using a single transferable vote system.

25. All academic staff in the relevant constituencies shall be entitled to stand and to vote. Academic staff are defined in Ordinance B1. In any category, where more - than one person stands for election, the Secretary to Council conducts a postal or electronic ballot.

26. Elections are normally held during the second semester prior to the academic year in which an elected member's period of office shall be due to end.
 27. Where a casual vacancy arises because an elected member ceases to be a member before his/her term of office expires, the member replacing him/her shall commence a new term of office of four years and be eligible for re-appointment in the same way as other members.
 28. A member who does not attend a meeting for twelve consecutive calendar months shall be deemed to have resigned his/her membership.

Attendance at Senate meetings

29. Individuals in attendance at meetings of Senate, in addition to the Secretary to Senate, do so at the invitation of the Chair.

Boards and Committees of Senate

30. Senate may establish such Boards and Committees as it considers appropriate for the discharge of its responsibilities

Ordinary meetings of Senate

31. The Senate shall meet at least four times per year with meetings scheduled in advance. Scheduled meetings shall also be known as ordinary meetings.
32. The schedule of ordinary meetings shall normally be published by 30 June in the academic year prior to the year in which the meetings are to be held.
33. The quorum for Senate shall be one third of the membership.
34. If a meeting of Senate does not meet quorum, the Chairman shall determine whether; a) the meeting shall be postponed and rearranged, or b), that the meeting shall proceed. In the instance of b) all decisions made will be considered preliminary until the agreement has been confirmed by the required number of members to effect the decisions as formal.

Extraordinary meetings of Senate

35. An extraordinary meeting of Senate may be called by the Chairman at any time and will be held within a maximum of 21 days.
36. An extraordinary meeting of Senate may be called by the secretary to Senate at the written request of no fewer than one third of the members. Extraordinary meetings shall be held within a maximum of 21 days from the date of the requests to the secretary.
37. The business of an extraordinary meeting of Senate shall be only that business for which the meeting was called. An extraordinary meeting may be held electronically, by circulation or in person.

Circulation of agendas and papers

38. The secretary to Senate normally despatches the agenda and papers to all members for a meeting at least seven days prior to the date of the meeting.
39. Any member of Senate may propose an item for consideration to the agenda by submitting it to the secretary by the relevant published deadline.
40. Any papers not sent with the original circulation shall be circulated by the secretary at least three days prior to the meeting. Only in exceptional circumstances, and with the agreement of the Chairman, shall papers be circulated in a shorter timeframe or tabled at the meeting.

41. The agenda for a meeting of Senate may include items marked with an asterisk, which will signify an expectation that these items will pass without discussion. Any member may before the start of a meeting request that the asterisk be removed, to permit discussion of the items.
42. In exceptional circumstances, supplementary agenda items may be taken with the approval of the Chairman.
43. Agenda and papers for, and minutes of, any meeting or items relating to reserved business shall be recorded separately and circulated only to those members entitled to receive them.

Conduct of meetings of Senate

44. Any proposal or recommendation which appears on the agenda or in a report submitted to the meeting shall be put to the meeting for resolution. Any amendments to the proposal shall be considered in turn before the overall proposal. If an amendment is carried, the proposal shall be amended accordingly and the amended version considered for approval.
45. It shall be within the discretion of the Chairman to set a limit to the length of time to be spent on debate, provided that the mover of any proposal, motion, amendment or item of business has the right of final reply before it is put.
46. Voting at meetings shall be normally by show of hands of those present, not including the Chairman. The decision shall be taken in accordance with the majority votes. When equal numbers of votes are cast, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.

Acts during vacancies

47. No act or resolution of the Council or any committee or board constituted by it or one of its committees or boards can become invalid by reason only of any vacancy in the body doing or passing it or by reason of any want of qualification by or invalidity in the election or appointment of any de facto member of the body whether present or absent, or by reason of the accidental omission to give any member notice of the meeting or the non-receipt by any member of that notice.

Minutes

48. The secretary to Senate shall be responsible for producing minutes of the meeting and for maintaining the master copies of all minutes and papers.

49. Minutes shall be unconfirmed until approved at the next meeting. After the Chairman has agreed the unconfirmed minutes they shall be circulated to members. Any amendments to the unconfirmed minutes agreed at the meeting shall be incorporated into a final version which becomes the confirmed minutes and the formal record of the discussion and decisions.

4. The Senate shall be responsible for the approval of regulations for awards and programmes.

Ordinance A17: Honorary Fellows of QMUL

1. The Council may elect as Honorary Fellows of QMUL persons of distinction or persons who have in the opinion of the Council rendered significant service to QMUL or to the community, or with a demonstrable connection to or affiliation with QMUL. On the appointed day, Fellows and Honorary Fellows of the former Colleges shall become Fellows of QMUL. With effect from the date of coming into force of the Queen Mary and Westfield College Act 1995, all existing Fellows of QMUL became Honorary Fellows of QMUL. An Honorary Fellowship may not be conferred on an existing staff member or member of Council.

Ordinance A18: Honorary Degrees

1. QMUL may confer Honorary Degrees.
2. The honorary degrees that may be awarded are outlined in Ordinance A17 1.1-1.7
3. An honorary degree will not normally be conferred on a serving Chairman of the governing body of a College, or a person currently employed by QMUL.
4. An honorary degree will not normally be conferred on a 'serving politician', including:
 - 4.1 Ministers of the Crown;
 - 4.2 Members of Parliament;
 - 4.3 front bench members of the House of Lords;
 - 4.4 other leading active members of a political party; and
 - 4.5 persons in similar positions in other countries.

However, honorary degrees may be awarded to:

- 4.6 back-bench members of the House of Lords, even if affiliated to a political party;
 - 4.7 an 'elder statesman';
 - 4.8 a person retired from high Ministerial office, who is unlikely to hold a Cabinet office position again even if they remain a Member of Parliament; and
 - 4.9 serving Heads of State.
5. An honorary degree will not normally be conferred on a person who: has already been awarded an honorary degree of the University of London or QMUL.
 6. An honorary degree will not, save in exceptional circumstances, be conferred in absentia.
 7. Where the Council has formally resolved to confer an honorary degree on a person, and the death of that person occurs before the conferment takes place, the honorary degree will be deemed to have been conferred, the date of the conferment being deemed to be the day preceding the date of death.
 8. All honorary degrees will normally be conferred by the Chairman of Council. In the absence of the Chairman, honorary degrees will be conferred by the Vice-Chairman of Council.
 9. The revocation of an honorary degree will be decided by the Council.
 10. A proposal to confer an honorary degree will be made by the Honorary Degrees and Fellowships Committee. The proposal will be considered and approved by the Council.
