

Home-City-Street

- How has life changed on and around Kingsland Road?
- What do local residents feel about urban change in Hackney?
- What does it mean to feel at home, or not at home, in the city?

Join us for free screenings of four short films featuring Ali, Debby, Liz and Mark, followed by Q&A and discussion with local residents, the film-makers and researchers.

Tuesday 22 May at 4.30–6pm in the crypt, St Peter's Church, Northchurch Terrace, De Beauvoir Town, Hackney - with tea and cakes. No booking required.

Tuesday 19 June at 6–7.30pm at Ali's Floria Kebab Shop, 232 Kingsland Road, Hackney - with kebabs and falafel. Please email Alison Blunt (a.blunt@qmul.ac.uk) to book a place.

The films will also be shown at Hackney Archives on Thursday 12 July at 6pm at an event to launch a new audio walk about life on and around Kingsland Road. Further details will be available soon.
