

Programme

9.30am	Registration and coffee
10.00am	Pilot and feasibility studies workshop	Sandra Eldridge and Claire Chan on behalf of the PAFs collaborative group
11.30am	Coffee break
11.45am	Pilot and feasibility studies workshop	Sandra Eldridge and Claire Chan on behalf of the PAFs collaborative group
12.30am	Lunch
ARRIVAL FOR AFTERNOON SESSION FROM 13.00pm
13.15pm	Some current issues in Pragmatic Trials: bias, outcomes, and regulation	Professor Sandra Eldridge, Director of Pragmatic Clinical Trials Unit, Queen Mary University of London
13.45pm	Why we should do more Pragmatic Trials and how PRECIS-2 could help	Dr Kirsty Loudon, Stirling University with a contribution by Professor Shaun Treweek, Professor of Health Services Research, Aberdeen
14.15pm	RCTs and Routine Data: the promise, the reality and the potential	Professor Kerry Hood, Director Centre for Trials Research, Cardiff
14.45pm	Tea break
15.10pm	Why clinical trials are like bicycles	Dr Richard Hooper, Reader in Medical Statistics, Pragmatic Clinical Trials Unit
15.40pm	Pragmatic Trials: the next 50 years	Professor Deborah Ashby, Deputy Chair of the NIHR HTA Programme, and Professor of Medical Statistics and Clinical Trials at Imperial
16.10pm	Closing remarks	Professor Sandra Eldridge
16.30pm	END	