

WORKSHOP on "Cooperative behaviour, Kantian optimisation and market socialism"

Location: Graduate Centre, GC601

Date: Monday 18th of December

Time: 2pm-6:30pm

- 2:00pm: Opening & welcome (Valsamis Mitsilegas and Richard Bourke, Queen Mary University of London)

- 2:15 - 2:45: John Roemer (Yale University) "A theory of cooperation with an application to market socialism"

- 2:45 - 3:00: coffee break

- 3:00 - 3:30: Karine Van Der Straten (Toulouse School of Economics) "John Roemer's new theory of cooperation : A discussion"

- 3:30 - 4:00: Giacomo Corneo (Free University Berlin) "Some Institutional Design for Market Socialism"

- 4:00 - 4:30: Humberto Llavador (Universitat Pompeu Fabra) "Inequality reducing properties of income tax schedules"

- 4:30 - 5:00: coffee break

- 5:00 - 5:30: Francois Maniquet (Universite' Catholique de Louvain) "Comments on John Roemer's theory of cooperation"

- 5:30 - 6:00: Joaquim Silvestre (University of California, Davis) "Experiment-inspired comments on John Roemer's theory of cooperation"

- 6:00 - 6:30: Alain Trannoy (Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales) "Decentralized and Centralized Kantian Solutions"