

Directions for Wolfson Institute of Population Health
(name on the building Wolfson Institute of Preventive Medicine)
Barts and the London, Queen Mary's School of Medicine and Dentistry

We are here!!

Nearest Underground stations are:
Farringdon or Barbican (both on Circle, Metropolitan, Hammersmith and City lines)

Walking directions from Farringdon Station:

Walking directions from Barbican Station:

On leaving the station turn left onto Aldersgate Street. Take the first left into Carthusian Street. Continue and take the first right into Charterhouse Square. Continue ahead, keeping the park on your left. Walk on into Rutland Place (cobblestones) and walk through the gates into another square – this is the Barts and the London Medical School campus. The Wolfson Institute is now directly opposite you at the far end of the square. Continue along the road, passing Dawson Hall on your right. The Wolfson Institute is now on your immediate left. Walk past the Wolfson Institute and bear left towards the entrance doors. There is an entry-phone with instructions about how to gain entry.
